The I/FST conducts satisfaction surveys with individuals who receive behavioral health, drug and alcohol, and/or intellectual/developmental disability services in Franklin or Fulton Counties.

How are the surveys used?

Our Surveyors listen carefully as you respond to the Satisfaction Survey. With your responses:

- You tell us what's working
- You tell us your concerns
- You identify service barriers

Surveys are conducted anonymously allowing us to obtain accurate feedback.

Surveys are combined in reports that help state and local officials and mental health and behavioral health providers know how satisfied or dissatisfied individuals are with their services.
